TWO CENTS.

REPRESENTATIVE HOLMAN SAYS THERE WILL BE NO EXTRA SESSION UNLESS SOME CONDITIONS NOT NOW KNOWN SHALL ARISE-MR. CLEVE LAND AND THE COLORED MEN.

Representative Holman of Indiana, who called at the White House today, is authority for the statement that there will not be an extra session of Congress unless some condition not now existing and unforeseen arises. An interesting struggle is said to be progressing over the appointment of United States pension agent at Knoxville, Tenn. Senator Harris has asked for the appointment of Mr. Carpenter, Representative Enloe has named forward Col. Jordan of Carthage, while the President himself has taken a hand in the matter and is said to favor Mr. Patterson. The outcome is awaited by the delegation with more than usual interest. MINNESOTA HAS A HEARING. Minnesota had a hearing before the President today. Congressman Hall, Representative-elect Baldwin and Mr. Dan Lawler presented the name of Mr. Lewis Baker, editor of Alaska and Mr. C. F. McDonald receiver of the supplement the documents he now furnished with other papers bearing out his statements. Senator Kyle of South Dakots and ex-Gov. Ordway presented the name of Judge Thomas of the Black Hills for appointment as minister ing that ex-Congressman Wheeler, who has been a leading candidate for commissioner of pensions, has withdrawn from the contest. WHAT ME. WASHINGTON WANTS.

It was reported at the White House this morn

Representative Washington of Tennessee called with several of his constituents. He introduced to the President Col. John Overton of Nashville, who indersed the application of Col. Thomas Clairborne for marshal of the middle district of Tennessee. Mr. Washington also presented Mr. B. M.

Hord, ex-commissioner of agriculture of Tennessee, who would like to become assistant secretary of agriculture. Also Mr. M. A. Spurr. who wants to be consul at Bradford, England Accompanying Mr. Washington were Mr. Walter Caine of Nashville and Mr. Thomas Spofford of Pulaski, who indorsed Mr. Ernest Pillow for appointment as assistant attorney general of the Interior Department. HAS INDOESED ME. MARTIN F. MORRIS.

affairs and who is a firm believer in the "home Woods has been detailed to special duty at the rule' doctrine, has indorsed Mr. Martin T. Morris of this city for appointment on the new District Court of Appeals. Congressman Kilgore called to introduce Mr. Jacob Hodges of Paris, Texas, who is said to have an eye upon the attorneyship for the Paris ham at Havana, Cuba, directing him to proceed at once with the U. S. S. Newark and Bennington to Hampton Roads.

Senator Jones of Arkansas presented Judge
L. A. Byrne of Texarkana, who would like to be minister to one of the South American republics.

MINISTER GRAY CONNISSIONED.—The President of Alabama called bus ships. Included in the crowd were the Representative Turpin of Alabama called indorsed throughout Alabama and Tennessee

The officers of the America the negro Mr. Murray said: "The inauguration of a President of your political faith has always retary Gresham today issued commissions to the gentlemen whose nominations were confirmed by the Senate on Monday. They included Ministers Gray and Eustis to Mexico and France respectively, Consul General Collins to London Assistant Secretaries Quincy and Should you utilize the occasion to force upon us the conviction that the change of administration and these are now prepared to us the conviction that the change of administration problems in their conviction that the change of administration problems is the conviction that the change of administration problems in their conviction that the change of administration problems is the conviction that the change of administration problems is the conviction that the crime is the outcome of a nitration from republican to democratic rule does not mean special harm to us. Such convic-tion would crush forever the present formation of political parties in the south, wipe out in great measure political fraud and murder and cause the reorganization of parties in the wake of principle and not race. As political office is the highest insignia of citizenship intelligent black men seek it more as a shield of protection than for the greed of emolument, for very many interpret the denial of office to them to mean that they are less than other classes of citizens and may be maltreated and outraged with impunity, just as just might crave, prejudice dictate or setfish greed demand."

About 400 people attended the President's public reception. After 2 o'clock the mansi-was practically deserted by callers.

THE COLUMBUS CARAVELS,

ARLWARDT PRODUCES HIS PAPERS. on in the Reichstag Over Ris Charges Against Bismarck.

BERLIN, March 22.-There was a large atendance of members and others at the opening of the reichstag today, interest and curiosity being whetted by the expectstion that Rector Ahlwardt would produce the documents he claimed to have in his possession showing that during Prince Bis-marck's occupancy of the chancellorship fraudu-lent contracts had been made repeatedly with Hebrew financiers and that vast sums of money belonging to the state had been transferred dis-honestly to Hebrew speculators.

At yesterday's session of the reichstag Ahl-wardt caused great excinement by making these very serious charges against Prince Bis-marck

Mr. Moore, Representative McMillin has put When the reichstag opened today nearly all the members were in their seats, and everywhere through the house there were evidences of the excitement that had been caused by Ahlwardt's charges. Immediately after the president took his seat Ahiwardt, upon whom all eyes were fixed, arose and stated that he wished to lay a few papers upon the table.

This announcement was the signal for excited shouts from the members demanding that he furnish the house with all the documents, the St. Paul Globe, for minister to Brazil, Mr. terday to furnish. Ahlwardt in response the Harry Hawkins of Duluth for governor of these demands said that after Faster he would be the said that after faster he wo eleven in number, which he was directed yes-Renewed demands were made that he pro-duce at once all of his alleged documentary proof of dishonesty on the part of officials and ex-officials.

Count Von Ballestrem, a leader of the center party, moved that the sitting of the reichstag be suspended in order to allow a special committee to examine the papers already presented. Herr Richter, the Freisinnige liberal leader, opposed Count Von Ballestrem's motion, so far
